Display Suffrage Colors.

Display Suffrage Colors. Miss Eleanor Wilson, daughter of the President was unable to attend owing to illness, but Miss Bones and Miss Hagner were present with Mrs. Wilson, By a peculiar coincidence, the colors of the flowers and the favors at the breakfast are those adopted by the suffragists, but Mrs. Ayres declared there was no hidden meaning in the fact, beyond the decorators seemed to favor the colors in question.

All the guests were asked to place their autographs in a book, which was presented to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, in whose honor the event took place, in whose honor the event took place.

At the place at the honor guests' table, which was originally assigned to Mrs. Champ Clark, was Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution. ## ON EXCISE BOARD GAS PLANT WORTH FIFTEEN MILLION

New Appraisal of Plant of Washington Gas Light Company Has Been Completed.

Washington Gas Light Company has been completed and shows it to be worth over $15,000,000. Vice President Howard Reeside admitted today that the appraisal upon which experts D. have been working for several months has been completed and is in the hands of President Leiter. As to the figure arrived at Mr. Reeside referred to Mr. Leiter, who was not at his office today, but it has been learned from other sources that the appraisers arrived at a valuation of upward of $15,000,000. This is an increase of more than $2,000,000 in the value of the gas property since the last appraisal, which was made June 30, 1909, and was $12,972,000.

Washington Gas stock was in demand on the local exchange in today's session and the price hardened. Evidently the knowledge of the increased valuation had some effect. A tota lof 130 shares were taken at 85 and ten shares at an eighth less. For the first time in many weeks For the first time in many weeks shares of the Georgetown Gas Company were traded in on the local exchange. Ten shares were sold at 1014, a six and a quarter point increase over the last sale. The bid was also raised from 85 to 90. A thousand-dollar lot of Georgetown Gas 5s also came out, at 104.

Mergenthaler was stronger than ever and sold at 218, The bid price was raised a point and a half. Commercial National Bank was bid up three points. The bond buying was small.

The new Dupont Circle branch of the United States Trust Company was opened this morning, with Robert D. Hagner, manager, and B. B. Wilson, assistant treasurer, in charge. The of-ficials received many congratulations upon the handsome appearance of the new bank. The building is a threestory brick structure of ornate architecture. The fixtures are of Tennesse marble and bronze. The banking room is equipped with a large women's sec tion, safe deposit vaults and private booths. A large vault has also been placed in the basement.

The new Washington Savings and Commercial Bank will open for busi-ness Monday morning at 733 Ninth
